Residential Burglary

Detectives from the Contra Costa County Office of the Sheriff are continuing to investigate two burglaries that occurred at a home in unincorporated Martinez.

On Friday, July 15, 2016, at about 9:10 PM, Deputy Sheriffs responded to the 5000 block of Alhambra Valley Road regarding a residence that was burglarized. The next day at about 1 PM, Deputies went to the same location for a second burglary report. That same evening at about 8 PM, a truck parked in the driveway of the home was stolen.

Items taken in the burglaries include a number of bronze statues, including:
Marc Anthony, 8 feet tall, tri-colored
Cleopatra, 8-1/2 feet tall, tri-colored
Lady Justice, 4 feet tall

Also stolen were two bronze tigers statues, three bronze drinking pitchers, whiskey decanters, an MK tile saw and a mink-like coat

The truck that was stolen is a white 1995 Dodge 3500, extended cab with California license plate—5Y33805.

Many of the items stolen are distinctive. Please see the attached photographs. Anyone with any information on these burglaries or the whereabouts of the stolen items is asked to contact the Investigation Division at (925) 313-2661.
